Button Factory Arts Call for Board of Directors Members

Deadline: October 25, 2022

Button Factory Arts is a registered charity with a mandate to enliven Waterloo Region by being an inclusive hub that inspires and facilitates artistic exploration and creativity. Button Factory Arts is currently seeking dynamic individuals to join our Board of Directors.

Over the past few years Button Factory Arts has undergone many exciting developments, including the installation of a new elevator to make the facility fully accessible in 2021 and partnerships with a variety of local charities and art organizations in ongoing arts programming throughout Waterloo Region.

We welcome candidates who are interested in joining the Board and supporting the next phase of Button Factory Arts' evolution, including contributing to the development of our next strategic plan. We are seeking individuals who are interested in providing visionary leadership and advisory support, and welcome applicants with expertise in visual arts, and/or backgrounds in development, fundraising, accounting, and law.

Board members are responsible for ensuring the overall health of the organization, while providing leadership and vision to foster its strength, stability, and evolution.

Statement On Equity

Recognizing the lack of diversity and equity in art and technology spaces, Button Factory Arts takes an intersectional approach towards inclusive representation. We promote initiatives to reduce financial barriers to access, collaborate with arts and community organizations that support equity-seeking groups, and work to increase representation in all levels of leadership and participation within the Button Factory Arts community.

Button Factory Arts welcomes and encourages people from marginalized communities and intersecting identities to apply. This includes Black people, racialized/people of colour, women, LGBTQ-identified persons, non-binary and non-conforming people, members of ethnic minorities, immigrants, and persons with disabilities.
